Martin Brofman: Everything can be cured!

Do you believe in human power? Believe in yourself? Then you can do them all. Are you able to catch your every goal, to create, lucky to even be cured. These are plucked from a book for enhancing self-esteem and self coaching. It is inspired by the experience of one of the most famous therapists in the world, Martin Brofman. When 35 years ago cured himself of cancer that nearly lead him to death, decided that it was the experience, knowledge and love for life to go to other people. And he did act. As he says "we can take the reins of our health and our lives. Just believe in our strength. " Our body, in accordance with Brofman, operates as a generator ready to feed the mind with energy. How should we direct this energy is purely up to us. For example, if suffering from stomach pains, you should direct your energy properly to release the specific point of the block. Healing "means returning to the innate state of balance and normalcy," writes Martin Brofman, in his book Everything can be cured (Publisher binoculars). You see that man is made to suffer. It is made to live in the body that can provide the ideal conditions to host a healthy spirit. The road will lead us to this pass through our minds. The cure is not out of us. It is within us. When himself Brofman was diagnosed with cancer has decided that he wanted to live. Focused on it, it worked incredibly with himself, read alternative approaches to the treatment and decided that with his own way would end the health problem the tormented. First, authority for Brofman any pain or illness is a "symptom." One symptom that shows more of the 7 chakras of the body is not functioning properly. Each chakra is associated with an endocrine gland with a neural network. If a gland is not working properly or because we fear gripped either because they live with insecurity or for any other reason, the chemistry of the body is not functioning properly. The intensity overwhelms us, the imbalance comes into our body and make it respond by displaying different symptoms.

What people do wrong? "We live in a chakra and let the remaining unused and closed. Directing our thoughts wrong, and therefore our energy. So we leave our body at the mercy of our beliefs and finally get sick. " Through his book "Everything can be cured" by Martin Brofman teaches us techniques to be able to control and purify our chakras everything the block. We can heal our body and soul. As he said himself Brofman «nothing is impossible as long as you believe deep inside you. Just leave a window open in your mind that anything can happen on your own volition. Many times people ask me how I do it, how people heal. And I reply that I do not, but those. I can not heal anyone if they really want. In fact, there will ch deal for me but everything can be cured. "

At least worth a try!
